

Supported by a grant from the Puget Sound Partnership

CLINTON WATER Forum

Saturday March 13, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A forum on water issues affecting wells and septic systems in Clinton, the state of South Whidbey's groundwater, and the effects of pollution on personal and environmental health and on Puget Sound.

Learn practical tips from presentations, workshops, displays and discussions with local and regional water quality practitioners. All participants will be entered in a drawing for 20 free spots on a guided boat trip in April along Clinton's shoreline.

PRESENTERS:

Janet Hall, WSU Island County Extension
Aaron J. Henderson, Island County Public Health
Maury Hood, Clinton Water District Commissioner
Doug Kelly, Pacific Groundwater Group
Don Lee, Island County Water Resources Advisory Committee
Anza Muenchow, South Whidbey Tilth
Nancy Snow, Collaborative on Health and the Environment
Todd Zackey, Tulalip Tribes
